

The WOMEN of Trentham in 1918

Daisy Aynsley née Poole was born on 7th February 1893 in Fenton. At the age of eight Daisy was at boarding school in Derbyshire and in 1911 she was working as a clerk.

She married John Aynsley in 1916 and they lived in a cottage on the corner of Barlaston Old Road and Leyfield Road where their daughter was born.

After John Aynsley died in a riding accident she married his brother, Kenneth and they lived together at The Nook, 49 Barlaston Old Road. Daisy's granddaughter still lives locally.

Daisy was too young to appear on the 1918 Register of Electors.
