Trentham Officer's Wedding

LIEUT. R. PADDOCK AND MISS OLIVIA ALLWOOD

Given 24 hours' special leave, Lieutenant Roy Anthony Paddock, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Paddock, of [redacted], was married at Whitgreave Parish Church, near Stafford, yesterday, to Miss Olivia Frances Allwood, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Allwood, of Whitgreave Manor.

Both families are held in high regard. The bridegroom's father is well-known in the local profession in North Staffordshire, and the bride's father is prominent in the business life of the county town.

In view of the circumstances, the wedding was attended by only a few members of the families, and the service was of a simple character. The bride wore a floral dress. Bridesmaids were dressed in light-colored frocks. The bride and groom carried out the duties of best man.

Those present at the church were [redacted] entertained at Whitgreave.

WOLSTANTON GROUP after the wedding of Mr. R. R. Turner, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Turner, of Trentham, to Miss Joan Salt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Salt, of Wolstanton. The bridegroom is a well-known Rugby player.

Mr. Ewart Garner Peake and Miss Jean Wallis, who were married at [redacted] Church yesterday.
