

Name WILLIAM CLARKE

DOB Abt 1892

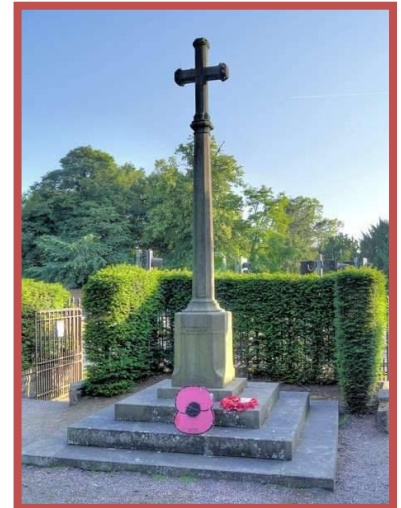

Place of birth Hanford

Lived at Hem Heath in 1901

Occupation Not known

Family In 1901 William aged 9 lived with his father John, [35] a widower and colliery furnace labourer. His grandmother, Mary Ann Clarke [widow], was head of household and also resident were an uncle, George 28, and two sisters Lizzie 13 and Edith 11.

In 1911 William is no longer living in Hem Heath and cannot be traced elsewhere. The census shows that his grandmother is still alive [81] and his father and Uncle George are still working as colliery furnace labourers and his sister Elizabeth seems to have had an illegitimate child, Thomas [3]

Service N/K

Reg number N/K

Rank N/K

Date of death N/K

Age at death N/K

Place of death N/K

Cause of death N/K

Grave or Memorial N/K

Medals N/K

Descendants N/K

- Other information
- No records of military service or death have been found
 - William may have been missing in action with no known war grave or memorial
 - He may have been recorded on the Trentham memorial because of his family connections.

